now in the drift, they were making moon-shine whisky and seiling it to negro laborers and railroad employes. The gang were getting along splendidly, and had succeeded ing making and selling lots of whisky when Bayton and King Lunsford, the two leaders, were arrested.

The other four lay in ambush for the officers all day, but they left the neighborhood with their prisoners by another road. The officers were guided and assisted by Jack Lawley, a prominent citizen of Bibb county. On last Sunday night Lawley was called to his gate, and was shot dead and robbed by Snyder, Ray, Hickey, and the negro. This aroused the citizens, and the moonshiners were driven into the drift and one of them killed. They being well armed, the citi-zens' posse decided on the starvation plan.

He was to receive $100 for the operation, but as the money was not forthcoming he offered to take four cattle for his fee. The price of the operation having thus been arranged, Medina went at night time to the house of his victim, where, armed with a razor and aided by the light of tallow candles held by men as intelligent as himself, he cut crosswise with the razor into the neck of his vic-tim and took the tumor out. The victim screamed, 'I am dying,' but the doctor merely said, 'You will not die,' and went on with his operation until the poor woman died under his hands, notwithstanding he continually said, 'Give her wine; she will not die.'"

STRUCK BY A METEOR .- On Tuesday night, while the steamboat James W. Baldwin was on its way to New York city and when near Manhattanville, Pilots Betts and Brooks say a meteor descended and struck a pane of glass of double thickness, smashing it to atoms. The meteor passed out and disappeared in the Hudson river. One of the tpilots, Guernsey Betts, had his hat knocked off by the current of air caused by the meteor. Captain Jacob H. POPPING THE CORKS.—Captain Dante, of the Portuguese bark Industrie, which arrived at Philadelphia on Wednesday, from Lisbon, passed on July 5 off the Canary Islands a large abandoned iron bark on fire. She was loaded with wines, and every few minutes a fresh case would take fire and ex plode, throwing the broken glass in all di-rections. The wreck was evidently that of an English vessel of about 700 tons, bound from the Canaries to London. Her crew had escaped. The fire was raging fiercely, and Captain Dante sent out a boat's crew to endeavor to sink the vessel by driving iron spikes into her sides, as she was a dangerous obstruction, but in this effort he was un

STARVING THE MOONSHINERS .- A dispatch from Birmingham, Ala., says: The Bibb county moonshiners are still in the coal drift near Brierfield, and are closely guarded by the citizens. Those in the mine have had no chance of escape, and being without food are undergoing starvation. The moonshiner who was shot on Monday was named Snyder. Bill Ray, Jim Hickey, and a negro are the candidates unwilling to starve in the drift. There were originally six of the gang, and they were regarded by the revenue officers as among the most des-perate and daring in the State. When they committed the crime for which they are were arrested.
